

Does The Bus Stop Here?

Mr Roberelli's 2nd Album, bidding 'Goodbye to Lithuania' and pondering whether 'He's lost His Marbles'. A brilliant follow up to the House on Wheels.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

£9.99

Ask a question about this product

Description

This was the first album that Lucy from the Jo Walters Trust and her family owned, sent over by a friend in New Zealand. The then 3 year old in the house thought that 'He's Lost His Marbles' was the funniest thing she'd ever heard. A few years later and losing her baby teeth, 'The Gum Lets Go' has become very important to her. A super album all round, and it's hard not to feel more cheerful after singing along to the 'Does the Bus Stop Here' with its wonderful chorus:

'All in all
I think my chances are pretty slim
But my hopes are high
'Cause I'm a high hopes kinda guy'.

We've got high hopes that you'll love it!

Track List:

- The Romans
- Sweaty Betty
- Slightly Speckled Egg
- Buddha
- Beans About Beans
- Eileen on the Fence
- Little Praying Mantis
- The Gum Lets Go

- Mona Hurley
- He's Lost His Marbles
- Mr Roland
- Does the Bus Stop Here?
- Goodbye to Lithuania
- Casting On

Click the button to sample the tracks on Mr Roberelli's Website

Also available to Download...

The Jo Walters Trust is selling these CDs as a means of raising funds to support our projects. We do know that these days, however, many people prefer getting their music digitally and so you can buy a digital version of one of these albums from iTunes by clicking the link below. While it won't make the same amount for the Jo Walters Trust, we will receive a small percentage back from Apple, at no extra cost to you. We appreciate your support either way!